PORT KLANG FREE ZONE APPOINTS NEW MD

Noel Gulliver has been appointed as the managing director of Port Klang Free Zone (PKFZ). Gulliver, who has service in senior and regional management roles for multinational companies such as Maersk Logistics, Roadway, Jardine Logistics, CF/Emery Worldwide and Schenker, has more than 30 years of experience in the logistics business.

PKFZ, scheduled to open in the third quarter of the year, is Malaysia's first integrated commercial and industrial free zone. It is designed, managed and marketed by JAFZA International, the consulting and management division of Jebel Ali Free Zone Authority.
